Shiraz University of Technology Online English Proficiency Test (SOEPT)

- The exam consists of 4 sections: Speaking, Listening, Reading, and Writing.
- Total exam duration is expected to be about 30 minutes.
- The exam has a maximum of 100 points. Each section has a maximum of 25 points.
- In order to pass the exam, the examinee needs to obtain a total score of 60 or higher.

➤ Part 1: Speaking

- 1-1: Introductory questions, e.g. why are you studying Ph.D., what are your next plans, why did you choose this field of work, what are your hobbies, etc.
- 1-2: Main question in one of the following forms:
 - Asking opinion, advice, etc : The examinee is given a question and is allowed to prepare his/her answer for a 2 minute preparation time. Then, he/she has to provide the answer by speaking for a maximum of 2 minutes (Fig. 1 provides an example).
 - Graphical/Visual question : The examinee is shown a graph or picture and has to speak about his/her understanding and noteworthy information provided by the graph. A 2 minute preparation time is granted after which the examinee is allowed to speak for a maximum of 2 minutes (Fig. 2 provides an example).

➤ Part 2: Listening

- Consists of one question. A track containing a conversation or a monolog (lecture) is played. After playing the track, the examinee has to provide a clear summary of what he/she understood, in Farsi, for a maximum of 2 minutes.
- Examiners may ask follow-up questions regarding the track (Preferably in English or alternatively in Farsi).

➤ Part 3: Reading

- A text is shown to the examinee. The examinee must read the text aloud, in clear English.
- Examiners may ask follow-up questions, e.g. meaning of some words in the text, or translation of some part of the text in Farsi.

➤ Part 4: Writing

- An essay topic is given to the examinee (Fig. 1 provides an example). First, the examinee MUST orally explain the outline of what he/she wants to write down in the essay (Preferably in English or alternatively in Farsi). At this stage, the examiners may also provide some hints (in Farsi) to help the examinee write a more detailed essay. After this stage, the examinee needs to share his/her screen with examiners, open a text editor (e.g. Microsoft Word) and start writing and editing his/her essay for a maximum allowed time of 10 minutes.

Important Notes For Examinees:

- The examinee must appear in formal dress and keep his/her webcam on for the whole exam duration.
- It is recommended to have pen and paper at hand in order to write down notes during the exam.
- The examinee is advised that the exam is recorded for the purpose of further evaluation and marking.

INTRODUCTION

As a teaching or research assistant, you will often find yourself in situations where you have to make decisions, justify your decisions, and consider possible outcomes and consequences.

TASK

Your task in the next item is to make a decision and then discuss the pros and cons - the possible positive and negative consequences - associated with your decision.

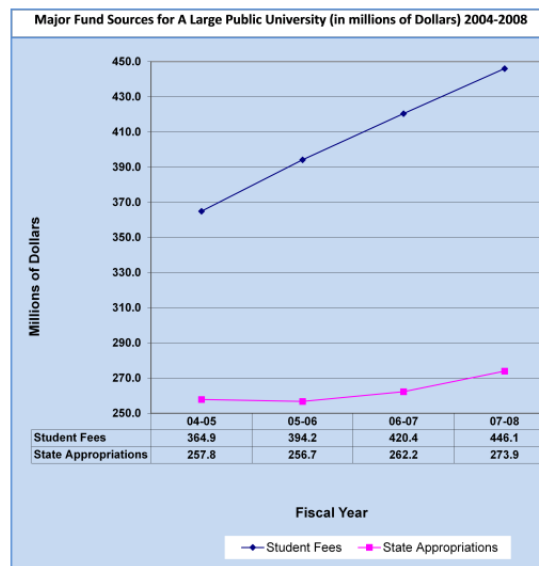

Imagine you are a teaching assistant. Your student Mary came to talk to you during office hours, saying that she saw Jim, another student from your class, cheating on the last exam.

QUESTION

What would you do in this situation? What are the possible pros and cons associated with your decision?

Fig. 1- Example of Speaking / Writing question (asking for opinion, advice, etc) [1].

Item 4 of 8: Line Graph

QUESTION

How would you present and discuss the information shown in this graph? What is noteworthy or interesting? What are possible explanations for the trends illustrated?

Fig. 2- Example of speaking question (graphical/visual question) [1].
